E. church, gave a social last evening in the large lecture room of the church, and more than 100 members and friends of the league enjoyed themselves with music and games until a late hour.

Deliclous refreshments were served by dainty maids, in colonial aprons and caps, during the evening. An interesting contest in which honors were evenly distributed took place between the "Kitchen Quartette" and the "Zobo Four," and proved to be very humorous if not especially classical. The former were little girls attired as "Biddies"; and the latter an equal number of boys from the "Fatherland."
